DAMAGED SHIP RETURNS.

The Princess Matoika In Port With Damaged Steering Gear.

The Princess Matoika of the United States Lines, which left on Saturday for Bremen with 400 passengers and became disabled 100 miles east of Sandy Hook in the snowstorm, returned yesterday to Pier 1, Hoboken.

The passengers may be forwarded on the America of the same company this week. Apart from the steering gear, the Princess Matoika was undamaged, the Captain said.

The New York Times
Published: February 1, 1922
Copyright © The New York Times