California Indian Basketweavers' Resource Directory

Native Weave Finder

Application Form

The California Indian Basketweavers' Association (CIBA) office regularly receives numerous requests each month from individuals seeking to connect with our members for various purposes. These inquiries range from purchasing or commissioning new baskets to seeking basketry teachers, demonstrators, and presentations on "area-specific" tribal and cultural history, as well as requests for basketry identification. In alignment with CIBA's mission to preserve, promote, and perpetuate California Indian basketweaving traditions, we aim to link these connections by offering our members to be included in a "California Indian Basketweavers' Resource Directory- Native Weave Finder."

This directory will feature our active members who are open to being contacted in relation to these requests. Participation in the directory is entirely voluntary, and members can choose to provide their information willingly. CIBA is dedicated to ensuring transparency and effective communication regarding the use of our members' information. All details included in the California Indian Basketweavers' Resource Directory will be on a voluntary basis and will be accessible in both printed and digital formats for convenience. Additionally, the digital version of the directory will be available on our CIBA website.
