EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

OCTOBER 15 2023 NIKE MELBOURNE MARATHON

The 45th installment of the Nike Melbourne Marathon Festival took place on October 15, 2023, boasting a historic turnout of over 40,000 registered participants, setting a new milestone for this renowned sporting extravaganza.

On race day, there were five different distances, all commencing at Batman Avenue and concluding with a lap around the renowned MCG. The events encompassed the Nike Melbourne Marathon (42.195km), Nike Melbourne Wheelchair Marathon (42.195km), Nike Half Marathon (21.1km), Sri Lankan Airlines 10km run, 180 Good Sport Nutrition 5km run, and a 3km walk. Regardless of whether participants were taking on their first marathon, aiming to surpass a personal best, or simply enjoying a leisurely springtime stroll with loved ones, there was a place for everyone at the starting line.

Victoria's Reece Edwards won the men's Nike Marathon with a time of 2:14:34, receiving $20,000 in prize money and the inaugural Steve Moneghetti Award as the first Australian male to cross the finish line. This was Edwards' first ever marathon win, made even more special with the birth of his first child expected any day now. Second place was secured by Queensland's Ryan Gregson, who made his marathon debut in 2:14:54, followed closely by former Melbourne Marathon winner (2018) Liam Adams in third place with a time of 2:15:37. Winner of the women's Nike Marathon was Gemma Maini from Victoria, who tackled the 42.195km course in a time of 2:35:25. Marking her marathon debut, Maini also received a coveted cash prize of $20,000 and the iconic Kerryn McCann Award as the first Australian female finisher. Former Melbourne Marathon winner (2021) Milly Clark secured second place in the women's pool in 2:41:27, whilst this year's Canberra Marathon winner Cassie Little rounded out the podium with a personal best time of 2:43:15.

The first athlete to cross the Nike Half Marathon finish line was Jack Rayner from Victoria, who raced against the clock to secure a time of 1:03:09. Rayner is now the only runner in Festival history to secure three consecutive wins in the 21.1km event. Queensland's Genevieve Gregson was the first woman to complete the 21.1km distance, securing a time of 1:10:07. Gregson's win was made even more memorable as she celebrated on the finish line with her husband Ryan and their son Archer.

The SriLankan Airlines 10km Run was won by David McNeill from Victoria with a time of 29:10. Queensland's Olga Firsova was the fastest female to complete the 10km event with a time of 32:52. Winners of the Nike Wheelchair Marathon were Spartan Legend Ian Gainey, who completed his 31st Melbourne

Marathon, and Sharnie Digby, who completed her seventh.

Records were also broken off the track with participants raising more than $1.7 million for 333 deserving causes including the festival's new charity partner Beyond Blue, and associate charities FightMND, JMB Foundation, The Heart Foundation, Ovarian Cancer Research Foundation, and My Room Children's Cancer Charity.

The success of this event owes much to the generous support of our partners. We extend special gratitude to our title partner, Nike, and our esteemed premier partners SriLankan Airlines, BMW, Gatorade, and Bupa.

Congratulations to the winners and everyone who participated in the historic 2023 Nike Melbourne Marathon Festival.
