INTRODUCTION

Final results of the 1966 Census of Canada are presented in this report to show population totals classified by sex for counties and census divisions, as well as for such subdivisions as incorporated cities, towns, villages, organized municipalities, parishes and townships. Population totals from the 1961 Census are shown for comparative purposes. These final totals of the 1966 Census are being published in four regional reports as listed on the back cover (see Reports 1-3 to 1-6, inclusive).

County totals are shown in these reports for all provinces except Newfoundland, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, where there are no counties similar in function to those of the other five provinces. In the four western provinces "census divisions" were established for the publication of census statistics at the time of the 1921-31 Censuses and in Newfoundland prior to the 1951 Census. The census division boundaries of Alberta were revised before the 1956 Census and those of Manitoba before the 1961 Census.

In all provinces, the subdivisions of counties (or census divisions) consist of incorporated townships, municipalities, cities, towns, villages, etc., depending on the form of municipal organization in a particular province. However, in Newfoundland and British Columbia the extensive unorganized areas are also divided into "census subdivisions" which in 1966 do not include the populations of any incorporated municipalities, towns, villages, etc., or Indian Reserves located therein. Similarly, in Nova Scotia, these "census subdivisions" divide up the territory within the large county municipalities, but do not include the incorporated cities and towns, or Indian Reserves. It will be noted that for the latter three provinces, this exclusion of incorporated municipalities and Indian Reserves from the "subdivision" totals is a departure from earlier census practice to provide a more uniform method of presentation for all provinces. Comparable totals with the 1951-61 Censuses can be obtained by adding the relevant incorporated areas and Indian Reserves to the 1966 "subdivision" totals (see end of table).

Finally, it should be noted that, as in previous censuses, all Indian Reserves in a given county or census division (or "census subdivision" in the case of Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and British Columbia) are treated as though they formed a separate municipality and they are not included in the population totals shown for the municipalities or unorganized areas in which they may be geographically located.

Le présent rapport donne les résultats définitifs du recensement du Canada de 1966 en ce qui concerne la population, répartie par sexe, des comtés et divisions de recensement ainsi que des subdivisions telles que cités, villes et villages constitués, municipalités, paroisses et cantons ou townships organisés. Pour fins de comparaison, on donne aussi la population lors du recensement de 1961. Ces chiffres définitifs du recensement de 1966 paraissent dans quatre rapports régionaux énumérés sur la couverture arrière (voir les rapports 1-3 à 1-6 inclus).

Les rapports donnent la population par comté pour les provinces autres que Terre-Neuve, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta et Colombie-Britannique, où il n'y a pas de comtés qui remplissent la même fonction que ceux des cinq autres provinces. En vue de la publication des statistiques du recensement, des "divisions de recensement" ont été créées lors des recensements de 1921 et 1931 dans les quatre provinces de l'Ouest et avant celui de 1951 à Terre-Neuve. Les limites des divisions de recensement ont été remaniées avant le recensement de 1956 en Alberta et avant celui de 1961 au Manitoba.

Dans toutes les provinces, les subdivisions des comtés (ou divisions de recensement) comprennent les cantons ou townships, les municipalités, les cités, les villes, les villages, etc. constitués, suivant la forme d'organisation municipale propre à la province. Cependant, les vastes étendues non organisées de Terre-Neuve et de la Colombie-Britannique sont de plus réparties en "subdivisions de recensement" lesquelles en 1966 ne comprennent pas la population d'aucune municipalité, ville, village, etc. constitués, ou réserve indienne situés là-dedans. De même, en Nouvelle-Écosse, ces "subdivisions de recensement" divisent le territoire en dedans des grandes municipalités de comté mais ne comprennent pas les cités et villes constituées ou les réserves indiennes. Il faut remarquer que pour les trois dernières provinces, l'exclusion des municipalités constituées et des réserves indiennes du total de la "subdivision" constitue un écart de ce qui a été fait lors des recensements précédents afin de fournir une méthode de présentation plus uniforme pour toutes les provinces. Des chiffres comparatifs à ceux des recensements de 1951 et de 1961 peuvent être obtenus en additionnant les régions constituées pertinentes et les réserves indiennes au total de la "subdivision" en 1966 (voir la fin du tableau).

Finalement, il faut remarquer que, comme dans les recensements précédents, toutes les réserves indiennes dans un comté donné, ou une division de recensement (ou "subdivision de recensement" dans le cas de Terre-Neuve, de la Nouvelle-Écosse et de la Colombie-Britannique) sont traitées comme formant une municipalité distincte et elles ne sont pas comprises dans le chiffre de la population donné pour les municipalités ou les régions non organisées dans lesquelles elles peuvent être situées géographiquement.

Note: For footnotes, see pages 9-47 and 9-48. In a few instances the counties of the province of Ontario, as they appear in census volumes, have not the same boundaries as the municipal counties. Each part of subdivision located in a different municipal county is indicated on page 9-46. The subdivisions of the counties of Ontario other than the incorporated cities, towns and villages are township municipalities and improvement districts. The abbreviation "I.D." is used to denote "Improvement District" in this table. - Note: Pour les renvois, voir pages 9-47 et 9-48. Dans certains cas, les comtés de la province d'Ontario, tels qu'ils paraissent dans les volumes du recensement n'ont pas les mêmes limites que les comtés municipaux. Chaque partie de subdivision située dans un comté municipal différent est indiquée à la page 9-46. Les subdivisions des comtés de l'Ontario autres que les cités, villes et villages constitués sont des municipalités de canton et des districts d'amélioration. Dans ce tableau, "D.A." indique un "District d'amélioration".

NOTE

The divisions of the province of Ontario are the municipal counties generally and districts in the northern parts of the province. In a few counties changes in boundaries have been made and these have not been followed (the reason being that it would have been impossible to make comparisons with previous censuses). The following departures from the boundaries of municipal counties have thus been necessitated:

NOTA

Dans l'Ontario, les divisions de recensement sont généralement les comtés municipaux, sauf dans le Nord où ce sont les districts. Même si les limites de quelques comtés ont changé, il n'en est pas tenu compte afin de maintenir la comparabilité avec les recensements antérieurs. Voici les cas où il a fallu s'écarter des limites des comtés municipaux:
