GUIDELINES (Senior Citizen's Higher Education Act of 1974, Code of VA 23-38.54-60)

Definition: "Senior Citizen" means any person who, before the beginning of any term, semester or quarter in which such person claims entitlement to the benefits of this chapter, (i) has reached 60 years of age, and (ii) has had a legal domicile in this Commonwealth for one year (Code of VA 23-38.55).

Eligibility:

A) Senior citizens may enroll to audit (no credit) academic courses and pay no tuition or fees, except course related fees.
B) Senior citizens may enroll in a course and earn academic credit and pay no tuition or fees, except course related fees, only if the citizen has an individual taxable income not exceeding $23,850 for Virginia income tax purposes for the year preceding the year in which enrollment is sought.

Terms:

A) Senior citizens may enroll in no more than three courses in a given semester and pay no tuition.
B) Senior citizens shall meet the appropriate admission requirements of the institution.
C) Senior citizens may be denied enrollment based upon space availability in course(s).
D) Newly admitted senior citizens are eligible for reimbursement of their initial application fee.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. After admission to the University, register for courses via Patriot Web (patriotweb.gmu.edu).
2. Submit this completed form to the Office of the Registrar before your tuition due date.
3. If taking course(s) for academic credit, submit proof of income along with this form.
4. Office of the Registrar will apply the audit grade type to all audited course(s).

* Please notify us via this form if changes are made to your registration ****
