

THE DEN
BASEMENT COCKTAIL BAR
AT THE ATLANTIC

Head underground to our ambient basement bar, The Den. Filled with bookcases, heirlooms, gas-flamed heaters enclosed in glass, velvet sofas, vintage Persian rugs, cottage chairs and a grand piano. This subterranean world ensures it delivers all it promises through opulent décor, an encyclopedic wine list, the city's top mixologists and live music.

Enjoy a night of escape and please every single sense through the celebration of expertly crafted cocktails and expansive selections of hand-picked rare whiskies, vodkas and other spirits from the finest distillers around the world.

All you need to do is find your niche, nook, chaise or stool, settle in and get mixing.

EXCLUSIVE EVENTS

The Den is a dark, slinky subterranean playground that celebrates the finer things in life. With the ability to book one or both of our versatile private rooms for your next event, we provide the pleasure of exceptional bar service, the music to set the tone and an inviting ambience. A highly flexible space, The Den is the perfect birthday, after party or engagement venue. Edgy exposed pipework, cosy corners filled with antique furniture and an exclusive drinks menu that caters to your most treasured poisons – every feature of this underground lair has been carefully constructed to provide the most unique experience for every type of night dweller.

THE CATERING

FISHERMAN'S NOTES

The Den's canapé packages are based on quantity rather than duration - each individual event is different, and we wish to provide you and your guests with food that caters for your requirements. Bespoke menus are available upon request.

Please note the attached menus are current at the date of receipt but may change due to product availability and seasonality.

The Atlantic requests all dietary requirements to be advised to the event team prior to your event in order to accommodate your guests dietary needs.
