GETTING THERE

We can arrive by bus, car or on foot.
There is a bus stop in front of the Riverside Museum.

There is a car park in front of the Riverside Museum.

WHEN WE ARRIVE

We can go around either side of the Riverside Museum to The Tall Ship Glenlee.

We can go through the Riverside Museum to The Tall Ship Glenlee. The museum is free to enter.

GOING ON BOARD THE SHIP

We can go to the pavilion where a member of staff will help us, there may be a queue if we are busy.

A staff member will check our tickets if purchased online. We may be able to buy tickets on the day.

GOING ON BOARD THE SHIP

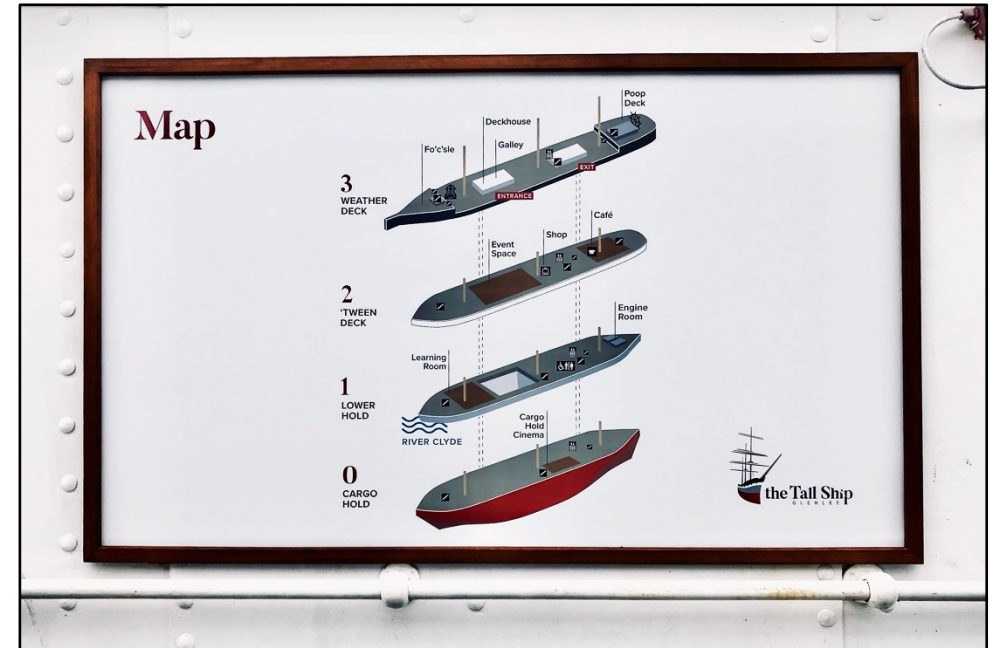

For more information on the ship, we can purchase guidebooks at the pavilion or use a phone to connect to our free digital guide for an audio tour, maps and more accessibility features.

GOING ON BOARD THE SHIP

We will go up the gangway to board. The ship goes up and down with the tide. It may be steep when you enter.

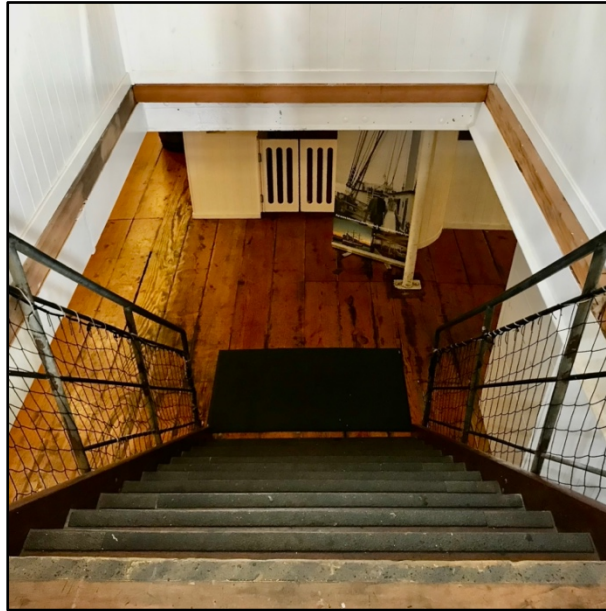

We are on the weather deck. There is a map to our left to help us find our way around the ship.

PEOPLE WHO CAN HELP US

Staff and volunteers will wear a black uniform and a name badge. There might be people dressed in costumes. If we hear an alarm during our visit, staff members will tell us what to do and where to go.

GETTING AROUND THE SHIP

There are wooden stairs inside and outside of the ship, they are steep and may be slippery when it rains. At the front and back of the ship are areas that are higher up than the weather deck. Please be careful in these areas.

GETTING AROUND THE SHIP

There is a lift on the ship. Please call ahead of your visit to use it. The lift goes to all areas except the fo'c'sle and poop decks. We can call the lift by using the button on the left.

TOILETS

There are male, female and an accessible toilet with baby changing facilities on the ship. The toilets are down the stairs at the café. The toilets have hand dryers in them. A Changing Places toilet is available in the Riverside Museum.

EXPLORING THE SHIP

There are cabins on the ship that are dark and small. They may be crowded.

Some areas outside are exposed to the weather. The higher decks may be windy.

EXPLORING THE SHIP

We can explore the weather deck.
There are cabins to discover here.
The wooden deck may be slippery.

We can look into some of the cabins and step inside others.

EXPLORING THE SHIP

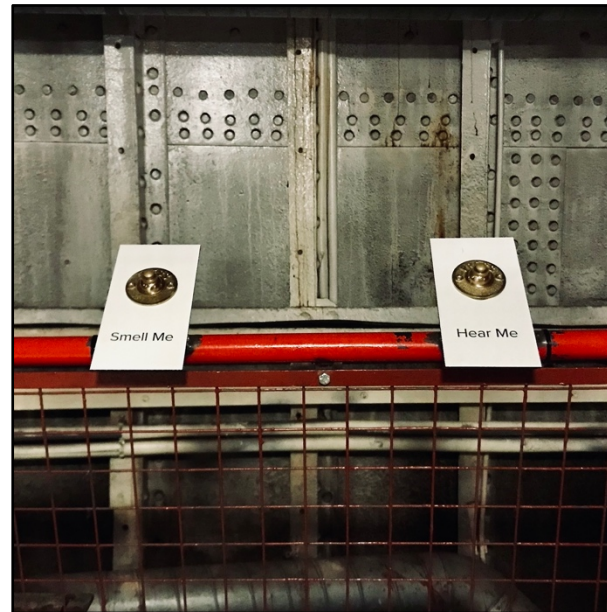

We will have to step over a high step to enter some areas of the ship.

We may see the crew of the ship working above us or on the deck. These areas may be closed.

EXPLORING THE SHIP

We will hear the sound of the bell on the ship. There are sounds and sometimes unpleasant smells in many areas of the ship such as sea shanties and machinery. Some are automatic, some we can trigger by pressing buttons.

EXPLORING THE SHIP

We can explore the tween deck, it is a bright, open space. There are exhibitions here.

There are panels we can look at that tell us about the history of the ship.

EXPLORING THE SHIP

We can explore the cargo hold.
There are bright lights and loud sounds in the cargo hold.

There is a walkway along the side of the cargo hold that goes to the learning room.

EXPLORING THE SHIP

If groups are visiting, there may be workshops or lunches in the learning room, it may be closed.

If groups are visiting, there may be workshops or lunches on the tween deck, it may be busy and noisy.

EXPLORING THE SHIP

We can watch films about the history and restoration of the ship in the learning room, in the engine room and in the aft deckhouse. These films have sound and the areas they are shown in are dark.

FOOD AND DRINK

There is a café on the tween deck at the back of the ship. The toilets are down the stairs at the café entrance.

We can order food and drink at the counter. There is music in the café. There may be a queue if it is busy.

WHEN IT IS TIME TO LEAVE

When it is time for us to leave, look for the green exit sign. We must only leave when our group is all together.

We can leave the ship along this gangway. It may be steep when we exit, please be careful when leaving.
