

HOPEFUL OF REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Col. Silas Seymour, Republican candidate for Chief Engineer and Surveyor, arrived in this city this evening. In a conversation with the representative of THE TIMES, Col. Seymour spoke very hopefully of the prospects of the Republican State ticket. Everywhere he had observed encouraging signs. There would be a light vote polled, he thought, but he was very confident of Republican success.

The New York Times

Published: November 2, 1881

Copyright © The New York Times