

CANADIAN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Miss Juliette Atkinson of Brooklyn Retains Her Championship.

NIAGARA, Ontario, July 16.—The finals and championship rounds were finished here to-day in the Canadian championship tennis tournament. In the men's singles L. E. Ware of Harvard, after losing the first set, won easily from M. D. Whitman of Harvard. The final doubles were surprisingly easy for E. P. Fischer and M. D. Whitman. Miss Juliette Atkinson of Brooklyn easily retained her title of Canadian lady champion, and the Challenge Cup becomes her absolute property. The handicap singles will be finished on Monday. Ware and Whitbeck meet in the finals. Scores:

Men's Singles.—Championship Round—L. E. Ware, Harvard, holder, beat M. D. Whitman, Harvard, challenger, 5—7, 6—3, 6—4, 6—2.

Men's Doubles.—Final Round—E. P. Fischer, New York, and M. D. Whitman, Harvard, beat L. E. Ware and J. D. Forbes, Harvard, 6—2, 6—1, 6—0.

Ladies' Singles.—Final Round—Miss Eustace Smith, Toronto, beat Miss Marie Wimer, Washington, 2—6, 6—3, 6—3.

Championship Round—Miss Juliette Atkinson, Brooklyn, holder, beat Miss Eustace Smith, Toronto, challenger, 6—4, 6—1.

The New York Times

Published: July 17, 1898

Copyright © The New York Times