HAVANA, June 12.—The Cuban Constitutional Convention to-day accepted the Platt amendment by a vote of 16 to 11. The resolution to accept was carried without discussion.

Immediately after the opening of the session Señores Tamayo, Lilluendas, and Quesada, constituting a majority of the Committee on Relations, submitted as a substitute for the committee's former report the Platt amendment as passed by Congress, recommending that it be accepted and made an appendix to the Constitution.

In the vote on the resolution the twenty-seven delegates present divided as follows:

In favor of acceptance—Capote, Villuendas, José M. Gomez, Tamayo, Monteagudo, Delgado, Betancourt, Giberga, Llorente, Quesada, Sanguilly, Nunez, Rodriguez, Berriel, Quilez, and Ferrer.

Opposed to acceptance, Zayas, Aleman, Eudaldo Tamayo, Juan Gualberto Gomez, Cisneros, Silvo, Fortun, Lacret, Portuendo, Castro, and Manduley.

Señores Rivera, Correoso, Gener, and Robau were absent. The latter two voted against acceptance in the previous division. Señor Ferrer voted with the Conservatives, explaining his change of attitude by asserting that he believed acceptance would be the best solution of the problem.

The convention will now appoint a commission to draw up the electoral law.
