

GASPAR BACON WEDS.

Ambassador's Son Married to Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Toland.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—The last of the local July weddings of social importance was that of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dale Toland's daughter, Miss Priscilla Toland, and Gaspar Bacon of Boston, a son of the American Ambassador to France, which took place to-day in St. Thomas's Church, Whitemarsh. Mr. and Mrs. Bacon came from Paris to attend the ceremony. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Dr. Alexander J. Miller, rector of the church, and he was aided by the Rev. Dr. J. Andrews Harris and the Rev. Dr. Endicott Peabody of Groton School.

Six bridesmaids attended the bride. They were Miss Hebe Wright, Miss Salvadora Meade, Miss Bacon, a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Anna W. Ingersoll, Miss Yetta Higgins, and Miss Frances Stokes. Robert Bacon, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Edward Toland and Richard Toland, brothers of the bride; Elliott Bacon, brother of the bridegroom; Stephen Markoe, Walter Webb. Charles Morgan, George Ball and Elliott Powdin, all of New York.

The gowns of the bride's attendants were of soft pink charmeuse over foundation slips of pale blue satin. They wore picture hats of leghorn with drooping brims, daintily trimmed with pink hydrangeas. Their bouquets were large ones of Summer flowers.

The bride's gown was of ivory satin, richly embroidered, having touches of duchess lace. Her tulle veil was arranged with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony there was a reception at the Summer home of the bride's parents. When Mr. and Mrs. Bacon return from their honeymoon trip they will make their home in Boston.

Miss Bertha Taft Weds F. W. Ried.

The marriage of Miss Bertha Maria Taft, daughter of Mrs. Alonzo Perley Taft of New York City, to Frederick Walter Ried of Boston took place Thursday at 2 o'clock in the Church of the Transfiguration, the Rev. Dr. Houghton officiating.

Mr. Ried is Director of Industrial Manual Training in the Massachusetts State Normal Schools at Salem and Framingham and is a member of the Country Club, the Avon Club of Cambridge, Mass.; the Copley Society of Boston, and other educational organizations.
