United Motors Buys Horn Factory.

The United Motors Corporation has purchased the Lovell-McConnell Manufacturing Company of Newark, makers of the Klaxon Horn, and will change the name of the concern to the Klaxon Company. It is understood that the Willys-Overland Company will discontinue the manufacture of horns and buy from the Klaxon Company, and that the latter's plant will be doubled to provide for an expected increase in business.

The New York Times
Published: September 10, 1916
Copyright © The New York Times