

NEW SUBWAY LINE OPENED.

White Plains Extension Is Now Running to 238th Street.

Practically all of the entire White Plains Road extension of the first subway was placed in operation yesterday afternoon, when trains were run between 219th and 238th Streets. The only remaining portion of the line that will be opened later extends to the terminal at 241st Street. Public Service Commissioners, city officials, officials of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, and enthusiastic residents of Williamsbridge, Woodlawn, Wakefield, and Edenwald traveled together on the first train.
