

DIVORCE RECOMMENDED FOR MRS. A. B. DUKE

Master Files Report in Action Brought by Former Cordelia Biddle.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—Recommendation for a divorce for Mrs. Cordelia Biddle Duke, daughter of Major and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, from Angler B. Duke, son of Benjamin N. Duke, millionaire tobacco manufacturer, is contained in the report of B. M. Golden, the master appointed to take testimony in the suit instituted by Mrs. Duke.

Mr. Golden refused to answer any questions pertaining to the testimony or make public the names of witnesses. Action on the case will probably be taken by the court on Sept. 26.

Mrs. Duke filed her action on June 16 last. The Dukes have two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke separated in 1918. The causes of their differences were not revealed. Mrs. Duke was married at the age of 17.

It was reported about a month ago that Duke, after being divorced, proposed to wed Miss Peggy Watson of New York. Both Miss Watson and Duke denied the report.

The New York Times

Published: September 20, 1921

Copyright © The New York Times