

TWO ARMY AVIATION LIEUTENANTS KILLED

Samuel H. Davis and William G.
Sinclair Are Burned After
Fall at Arcadia, Fla.

ARCADIA, Fla., Dec. 28.—Lieutenants Samuel H. Davis of San Antonio, Texas, and William G. Sinclair of Augusta, Ark., were instantly killed late today when their airplane went into a tail spin about five miles from here.

The officers were attempting to land and were but a few feet from the ground, spectators said, when the fatal crash occurred. Both bodies were badly burned.

The Lieutenants were stationed at the Carlstrom Army Aviation Field here.

The New York Times

Published: December 29, 1921

Copyright © The New York Times