WHAT

Tired. Worn out. Burnt out.

Following Jesus can sometimes feel like an uphill struggle. As healthcare professionals, we see daily the brokenness, frailty, and suffering of our world. Yet Jesus came to bring abundant life. How do we hold these realities together with hope?

In 2 Corinthians 3 and 4, Paul reminds us of the good news: as Spirit-filled believers, we are being transformed with ever-increasing glory. Through this lens, we recognise the treasure we carry in jars of clay, confident that God's power is at work within us: "Therefore, since through God's mercy we have this ministry, we do not lose heart" (2 Corinthians 4:1).

May we be encouraged and renewed as we reflect on our transformation and treasure.
