Message from the PRESIDENT

AMDG

Dear Friends,

As many of you know, a Jesuit's primary hope is to always be available to serve the people of God. For the last 15 years (13 of those years as President), I have been doing my best to serve the people of God at U of D Jesuit. That time is coming to a close at the end of this academic year.

Each year when I meet with the Provincial I always end the conversation by saying that I am ready to be sent wherever I'm needed. Fortunately for me, over the these last 15 years, the Provincial has always said, the need for you is at U of D Jesuit. This year he told me that he wants me to be ready for a new mission in late 2016. As you can imagine, part of me is deeply saddened to know that I'm now entering my last year at U of D Jesuit. The joy and gratitude I feel for having the privilege of serving this community is profound. There is simply no way to express my gratitude to all of you for what U of D Jesuit means to me. On the other hand, each Jesuit hopes that he will be sent where there is a need for his talents and skills. Thankfully, the Provincial has told me that they need me to serve a new mission. Fundamentally, this is what being a Jesuit means, to be sent where there is need. Most Jesuit high school presidents serve from 7-10 years. At the end of this year, I will be blessed to have had 16 years at this great place. How lucky I've been!

Please read the accompanying letter from our Board Chair, Hank Cooney '69

God bless,

KARL J. KISER, S.J.

President

MISSION STATEMENT

University of Detroit Jesuit High School and Academy is committed to providing the highest quality of Jesuit college preparatory education to young men in southeast Michigan. U of D Jesuit, in collaboration with parents, will challenge its students to go beyond academic excellence, to be reflective, to be committed to the service of personal faith and the promotion of justice: to be "Men for Others."

LETTER FROM HENRY B. COONEY '69

AMDG

September 2, 2015

Dear Members of the University of Detroit Jesuit High School & Academy Community,

At the U of D Jesuit Board of Directors meeting last night, Father Karl Kiser informed the Board that his Provincial would like him to prepare for a new mission in late 2016. He will continue as President of U of D Jesuit until June 30, 2016. Father's announcement at this time gives the Board ample time to prepare for the transition to Fr. Kiser's successor next year.

During his fourteen year tenure as President, Father Kiser has created a lasting legacy for the school. He has led the school through two strategic planning processes and two capital campaigns, the most recent and still ongoing being the exciting addition of our new science and engineering center that will open next year. In addition, Father has worked very closely with Mr. Trudel and the faculty and staff to integrate our school's mission into an ever-improving academic, athletic and co-curricular program. Under his leadership we have also seen the growth of our faculty and staff formation program which will allow us to continue to strengthen the school's Jesuit and Catholic identity. We greatly appreciate the tremendous impact that Father's vision has had on our goal of forming Men for Others for the Greater Glory of God.

To appoint a successor, the Board of Directors is preparing a transition plan designed to be thoughtful, methodical and comprehensive. Later this month we will officially commission a Presidential Search Committee to begin the formal part of our process. A Presidential search is the most important work for any Board, and we will solicit the insight of all stakeholders in the U of D Jesuit community to guide the effort.

We are grateful that with Father Kiser's leadership, U of D Jesuit begins this transition from a position of strength. We plan to use our transition process to enhance this position, building upon the positive outcomes from our most recent Strategic Plan in setting our future steps. This year will be a joyful one, as we celebrate Father Kiser's many contributions while preparing for his successor. Thank you in advance for your support and engagement in this crucial process as we carry on the U of D Jesuit tradition that is so dear to all of us.

Sincerely,

HENRY B. COONEY '69

Chairman, U of D Jesuit Board of Directors

AMDG

Dear Friends,

We are humbly grateful for your generosity. In this issue of Highlights, the "President's Report" publicly recognizes the many thousands of alumni, parents, friends and organizations integral in financially supporting the mission of educating Men for Others for the Greater Glory of God.

We received several questions throughout the year about school accomplishments and activities, its history, whereabouts of former faculty, and making a gift to The High. Below are the most frequent questions we received.

Q. What is the School's greatest annual fundraising need?

A. Tuition assistance. For the current academic year, more than 300 students received assistance totaling about $1.7 million. Each year, this amount must be fundraised from our benefactors.

Q. When can I make my gift to the new four-level, 40,000 sq. ft. Science and Engineering Center?

A. Now. We are in the process of approaching all of our constituents to consider a gift. If you wish to make a gift now, please contact me. We hope that all alumni, parents of current students and graduates, and friends will make a generous gift and participate in this exciting and visionary project.

Q. Can I designate my gift to a specific purpose of interest to me?

A. Yes. Gifts designated to the greatest needs of the school are preferred by us. Our greatest needs are funding tuition assistance and the new Science and Engineering Center. If there are other causes important to you such as Jesuit and Catholic Identity Formation © for the faculty and staff, athletics, faculty professional development, fine arts, eco-car, and robotics to name a just few, please let us know your interest when you make your gift.

Q. Does the school share my contact information with other organizations?

A. No! Your information is confidential and is not released to any other organization.

Q. I am not able to make a sizable gift at this time. Does my gift still matter?

A. Yes. To continue our 139-year tradition, we depend upon the generosity of our alumni, friends, and families. Your gift, regardless of the amount, makes a difference and supports our mission, as well as encourages others to make a gift too.

Q. Do you accept gifts of appreciated equity securities and mutual funds?

A. Yes. The instructions for stock gifts can be found on the website www.uofdjesuit.org/Waystogive "Gifts of Stock Securities". You may also call Tom Totte at (313) 927-2347.

Thank you very much for all you do to support the education of 900 young men at The High. I would appreciate hearing from you at either thomas.totte@uofdjesuit.org or (313) 927-2347.

Who's New At The High? - Alumni Volunteer Corps

The program founded in 1994 by then President, Fr. Timothy Shannon, S.J., provides an opportunity for alumni to use their talents and energies to benefit the U of D Jesuit Community on a daily basis. The AVC program offers a unique opportunity to influence students in many different ways and offers young alumni the chance to be "Men for Others." The AVC's benefit from living as a community in a school-owned house located near the campus, free utilities, a small living stipend, professional career advice, a wide range of work experience, the challenge to serve others and the chance to develop spiritually.

Describe what U of D Jesuit means to you in two words or less.

Reflective development

What is one thing you know now (as an AVC) that you wish you knew as a UDJ Student?

As a U of D Jesuit student I wished that I had established an appropriate balance in spiritual, academic, family, athletic and social life. Each holds great importance as to whom we are as individuals. Apart from spirituality, no single area should dictate how a person lives each day. This lesson, while introduced in high school, had to be continuously applied throughout college and thereafter. If I had frequently formulated and practiced a more balanced schedule at U of D Jesuit, I would have made the most of my time here with relative ease.

How will you get involved (what activities) and what do you plan to accomplish as an AVC?

During my brief extension here at "The High," I hope to assist my Algebra II students in reasoning more logically and my Honors English III students in expanding their distinctive creativity. By leading Campus Ministry retreats, I wish to promote the self-reflection I had talked about previously. Lastly, I plan on further establishing the school's Film Club in attempts to encourage artistic appreciation.

Magis

What is one thing you know now (as an AVC) that you wish you knew as a UDJ Student?

One lesson I wish I learned as a UDJ student was the ability to say "no." High School is a time when students are encouraged, often pressured, to excel in every facet of their life in order to emulate the ideal "well-rounded" college candidate. In college, I attempted to continue this trend during my underclassmen years, but soon realized that the pressure I had as a high schooler had taken a new shape; rather than being expected to be excellent in a handful of activities, I was now tasked with mastering just a few. Thus, learning to say "no" to those that I was no longer interested in or didn't quite make the cut was most definitely a learning curve. Understanding that saying "no" isn't a sign of weakness, but rather a mode of self-empowerment can be one of the most helpful tools to managing a collegiate career. While I was reminded of this plenty of times throughout high school, it was not necessarily a concept that I came to embrace or understand until later on.

How will you get involved (what activities) and what do you plan to accomplish as an AVC?

I will be involved within as many different sectors of the school as possible. In addition to assisting with the Band Program and teaching within the English Department, I plan to help with the Retreat Program, the school's Writing Workshop, coaching various athletic teams, and assisting with the Spring Musical. I hope to emerge from this work having come to a better understanding of how exactly a school of U of D Jesuit's caliber operates. More importantly, I simply hope to serve in whatever way I can as I assist with the formation of "Men for Others."

Inspiration

What is one thing you know now (as an AVC) that you wish you knew as a UDJ Student?
I wish I knew how much learning foreign languages can open up the world.

How will you get involved (what activities) and what do you plan to accomplish as an AVC?

I am helping teach chemistry and Spanish, working with the magis tutoring program, coaching the junior varsity and varsity soccer teams and am excited to be involved with many of the U of D Jesuit service projects such as Focus:Hope, Pledge Detroit and the summer mission trip. I also hope to go on the Quetico wilderness adventure.

John Shanley '10

Opportunity Awaits

What is one thing you know now (as an AVC) that you wish you knew as a UDJ Student?
That there was coffee in the building

How will you get involved (what activities) and what do you plan to accomplish as an AVC?

My primary job will be to teach Biology and Anatomy & Physiology with Mrs. Foerg, but I would like to get involved with community enrichment projects with student and faculty. We are very lucky to be working in Detroit while it is on the rise, and it would be a fantastic opportunity to play a part in that.

Matthew Tisdale '11

My Family.

What is one thing you know now (as an AVC) that you wish you knew as a UDJ Student?
The faculty and staff are a great resource for helping students in things beyond the class room. They have a great deal of knowledge and it would be a shame to let that go to waste.

How will you get involved (what activities) and what do you plan to accomplish as an AVC?

I'm involved with the varsity football team, and will be getting involved with other extra-curricular activities, such as video production club and coaching with track and field. I just hope that I can be of some kind of help to my fellow Cubs as they prepare themselves for college and life after that. I'm here to give back to the school that gave me so much and hopefully I can deliver.

U of D Jesuit Pallbearer Ministry Program Receiving National Media Coverage

The Ignatian Service Office is initiating a program this school year in the spirit of St. Joseph of Arimathea. U of D Jesuit students will serve as pallbearers at the funerals of homeless women, men and others who have no one else to pay their final respects to them. This is a beautiful act of generosity and solidarity. It serves as a significant reminder that all people are children of God and that God loves each of us beyond comprehension.

Joseph of Arimathea, a fervent disciple of Jesus, is named in all four Gospels and is revered as a saint. The website AmericanCatholic.org explains who he was and the courageous act he performed:

“Joseph was a respected, wealthy civic leader who had become a disciple of Jesus. Following the death of Jesus, Joseph obtained Jesus’ body from Pilate, wrapped it in fine linen and buried it. For these reasons Joseph is considered the patron saint of funeral directors and pallbearers. More important is the courage Joseph showed in asking Pilate for Jesus’ body. Jesus was a condemned criminal who had been publicly executed. According to some legends, Joseph was punished and imprisoned for such a bold act.”

The student’s first outreach occurred on October 20, 2015, when six senior-year students served as pallbearers for the funerals of three unclaimed veterans at the Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly, Michigan. A.J. Desmond & Sons Funeral Directors conducted the three veterans’ funerals.

As this issue is being printed, we’ve been receiving national and international media attention. Outlets such as the New York Times, USA Today, Today Show, Huffington Post, ABC News, NBC News, Associated Press and CNN have picked up the story. We will continue to update everyone as this story and ministry develops.

Students, President Visit Pope Francis

When Pope Francis came to the United States in September, Fr. Kiser and students from Campus Ministry had the opportunity to be a part of his historic trip. Karl Kiser, S.J. was invited by Senator Gary Peters (D-MI) as his honored guest for Pope Francis’ historic speech before Congress. It was the first time a Pope had spoken to Congress. Two days later, Campus Ministry sponsored a trip that allowed a handful of students to travel to Philadelphia to see Pope Francis. The journey was part of a pilgrimage to St. Joseph’s Prep in Philadelphia for the World Meeting of Families. Also in attendance were a number of other Jesuit high schools from around the country. Campus Ministry documented their trip on social media under the twitter handle @UDJ2Philly4Pope.

STEM Program, Student Invention Receive National Media Attention

Faith and science have come together through Mr. Coccitti-Smith's STEM research course. The five students enrolled in the course have had a busy year working in conjunction with University of Detroit Mercy. The students have been working on projects that incorporate research science with a goal of improving society. Their projects range from ovarian cancer screening based on genomics to building a wheelchair/stroller combination for a paraplegic mother. Alden Kane '16 (pictured) received national media attention for his wheelchair stroller invention. Alden was also invited to speak at the TEDx Detroit Conference in October at Cobo Center. This exposure is a great testament to our STEM initiative and project.

Alumni Golf Outing Sells Out

The 46th Annual U of D Jesuit Alumni & Friends Golf Outing was held on Friday, August 7th at Tanglewood Golf Club in South Lyon. Tee gifts, raffle prizes, on-course contests and good weather made it a day to remember. We had more than 144 golfers sign up, a full course. Jordan Morgan '09 was on hand selling raffle tickets and talking about his new charity. We also had some members of the U of D Jesuit Golf Team on hand to help. If you're interested in getting involved in the golf outing next year, please contact the Alumni Office. Thank you to all of our sponsors and donors for making it a great event!

The Jordan Morgan Foundation hosted its Home Court Initiative Basketball and Wellness Camp

From August 10-13, 2015, the Jordan Morgan Foundation (JMF) hosted its first basketball camp at U of D Jesuit. This camp allowed 18 campers ranging from 6th to 9th grade to receive daily basketball training from U of D Jesuit Alumni with college basketball experience. More important than the drills and games were the daily life skills sessions that the campers received from JMF partners. The campers learned valuable skills in areas including academic achievement techniques, financial literacy, and even entrepreneurship. Each camper left the camp with a JMF jersey, JMF backpack with school supplies, and signed Jordan Morgan picture.

Jazz Band Earns State Honor

The U of D Jesuit High School Jazz Band performed at the MSBOA State Jazz Festival in Royal Oak on Wednesday, March 25th. They performed three pieces of music for a panel of four professional jazz adjudicators. ("Groovin' High" by Dizzy Gillespie, "The Shadow of Your Smile" and "Feels So Good" by Chuck Mangione.) The band was awarded first division ratings by all of the judges, which is the highest honor in the state. This was the school's first ever state jazz award!

Magis Tutoring Program Makes The Difference

The MAGIS Tutoring program is an opportunity available to any interested U of D Jesuit High School student and is required for high school students who's GPA falls below a 2.0 or has two or more failing grades. MAGIS offers one-to-one tutoring and mentoring in both academic content areas and study skills. To allow students multiple opportunities to get the assistance they need, MAGIS is offered three times a day: before school, during all lunch periods, and after school.

Academy Choir Returns To The High

Beginning again this fall, the University of Detroit Jesuit Academy Choir will be under the direction of Michelle Gaunt. Her goal is to give every student a chance to learn and grow through music education and performance. Michelle Gaunt has a vast knowledge of choir and is using that knowledge to help our Academy students gain a true appreciation for music through exposure to music from many cultures.

Cub varsity golfers win the Catholic League Championship!

Baseball - Jim Mancuso '02

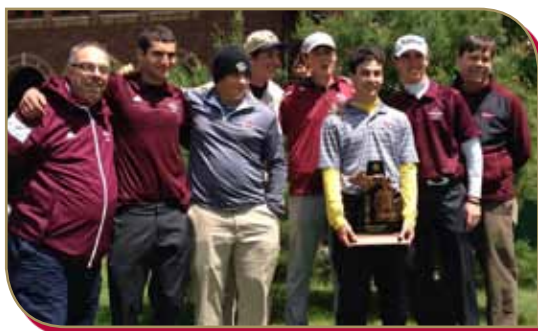

The 2015 Baseball team found themselves in a familiar spot in June. Led by one of the most decorated senior classes, the Cubs made it to another Regional Championship game. The 2015 senior class sent a record five players to the college ranks. Christian Werner (P), Waymond Lemon (OF) will be key assets to Coach Rob Fay as Schoolcraft College starts a baseball program in 2016. Andrew Novetsky (INF) joins former Cubs Andre Gard '14 and Zack Popovich '12 at Kalamazoo College. Nate Wenson (P/OF) and Chris Houle (INF) will continue their careers at John Carroll University. These players bring the grand total to 17 collegiate players during Coach Jimmy Mancuso's tenure. The future looks promising for the baseball program with more strong leadership and talent coming up through the ranks. Dai Dai Otaka, Jared Demkowicz and Pierce Mueller look to make their senior season one for the record books in 2016.

Golf - Paul Diehl '73

For the first time since 1971, the Cub varsity golfers won the Catholic League Championship. At Oakland University's Katke-Cousins Course, Cubs Co-captain, Nick Bonema, a junior, shot an unprecedented 9-under 63. It was the lowest round recorded in Catholic League history.

Team Senior captain Jamie Guisinger shot a one over par 73 at the tournament for All-Catholic honors. Cubs Mo Harb, John Karcher and Mac Bellovich contributed to the championship. Bonema has committed to Loyola University Chicago, where Kyle Stefan '04 is golf coach. Bonema also earned All-State, All-District, All-Regional and All-Catholic honors. Guisinger, an All-State Honorable Mention, will play at another Jesuit school, Alabama's Spring Hill College.

Lacrosse

Last year was an important season to the Lacrosse program. It was the first year with a new varsity coach, Tom Shermetaro, and the players were very excited. The Cubs started off the year strong with three big wins that were important to the players. The team suffered their first loss to Brother Rice 7-4 in a hard fought game. However, the team bounced back with a big win against Orchard Lake St. Mary's. After losing four games in a row, it was then that Coach Shermetaro and his team decided what kind of team they wanted to be, they knew they had to change things. They began to play together as team more and things started to turn around. They were confident going into the state playoffs. The Cubs met the Catholic Central Shamrocks in the playoffs, but fell short in a 13-6 loss. They are looking forward to the 2016 season and are taking the steps needed to compete at a very high level again.

Basketball

Cassius Winston Commits to MSU

Senior point guard Cassius Winston announced before his peers on September 18th that he will attend Michigan State University and play basketball for Tom Izzo. Winston, a stand-out athlete since his freshman year, is arguably the best high-school basketball player in Michigan and a top-30 player in the country. Minutes after his announcement at the school's pep rally, social media gravitated towards the story and it was a trending topic on Twitter. Cassius is free to formally sign on with Izzo in November. Coach Pat Donnelly and the basketball team hope to return for a third Final Four in East Lansing with the hopes of bringing home some hardware. Cub Basketball is ranked #1 in the state going into the 2015-16 season.

Athletic Hall Of Fame

The U of D Jesuit Athletic Department and the Athletic Hall of Fame Committee, in conjunction with the Cub Club Athletic Boosters, will induct its second class of Athletic Hall of Fame inductees on December 5, 2015 here at The High.

The Hall of Fame committee is comprised of U of D Jesuit Athletic Director Nick Kocsis, Director of Alumni Relations Jack Donnelly '99, Director of Annual Giving Chris Holinski '02, Bill Foerg '61, and E.F. Rossi '67. Per the Hall of Fame bylaws, there are two U of D Jesuit Hall of Famers on the committee as well, Ron Rice '90 and Kevin Halloran '75. The final spot on the committee is reserved for the Cub Club President.

According to U of D Jesuit Athletic Director and Athletic Hall of Fame committee chair Nick Kocsis, "It is a rare and special thing when a sequel can live up to the original. The quality and accomplishments of this second class of hall of fame inductees are incredible, just as the first class was last year. This is going to be a great night."

Throughout the 2014-2015 school year, nominations were solicited and added to over 90 possible quality inductees gathered from the school's 138-year history. This year nine individuals (one posthumously) were selected for induction. Aside from the individual inductions, Mr. Chuck Gumbel '64 was selected to receive the Athletic Hall of Fame's Distinguished Service Award. That award is given annually to an individual who has represented the mantra of being "Men For Others" by supporting U of D Jesuit Athletics. In 2014 the honor was presented to Mr. Tom Coyne '62. The Distinguished Service Award will now carry Tom's name in his honor. Another highlight of the evening will include the induction of the 1954 "Goodfellow" football team into the Hall of Fame's Ring of Honor. The 1954 football team will join the 1927 golf team, 2001 soccer team and the 1993 track team.

For more information about attending the 2nd Annual U of D Jesuit Hall of Fame induction on December 5, 2015 at U of D Jesuit visit our website at www.uofdjesuit.org.

Supporting The Jesuit High School Experience in Detroit

One of the primary characteristics of our donors is that they want to make a difference at U of D Jesuit, both now and in the future. Our alumni, students, faculty, parents, staff, and friends all work together to support the unique mission of U of D Jesuit. They create opportunities that advance programs enabling Catholic faith and character to inform and enlighten our students and, through them, the world. The education of our students would be impossible without gifts from you.

When it comes to making a long-term impact on U of D Jesuit, there are many giving options other than simply writing a check. How do you know which method of support is right for you? To find a charitable gift that best meets the needs of your family and supports U of D Jesuit for years to come, you need a plan—and I would be happy to assist you with your plan. Everything from simple bequests to gifts of retirement-plan assets, real estate, appreciated securities, charitable remainder trusts and gift annuities. Whether your gift is great or small, through gift planning, your thoughtfulness, generosity, and commitment will impact generations of our students.

The Arrupe Society comprises alumni, parents, and friends who, through thoughtful estate planning, deferred giving, and other forms of planned giving, ensure that resources will be available to support U of D Jesuit far into the future.

We are grateful to the following friends who have joined the Arrupe Society between July 2014 and June 2015.

Sponsoring A Circle of Care Scholarship

Will Change Their Future and Yours Too!

By Thomas L. Totte '74

How can I honor a loved one with a named scholarship at The High?

How do I achieve my philanthropic desire to change a young man's future and experience the joy of following his years at U of D Jesuit?

The answer to these questions is to become a Circle of Care Scholarship sponsor. A sponsor makes a special commitment to fund a U of D Jesuit education. There are two possible Circle of Care Scholarship opportunities, "Annual" and "Endowed".

The Annual Circle of Care Scholarship Program has these features:

- The sponsor is specifically assigned to the student during his four-years here. Sponsors will have the opportunity to meet the student and parents at the Annual Prayer Service and Dinner, usually held in early October. Also, there is communication three times during the year between the student and the sponsor. These letters allow you to follow the student during his days at the School.
- This is a sponsor-named scholarship. You may name the scholarship for yourself, or for another person(s) you would like to honor.
- The sponsor is matched with a student selected by the School's Financial Aid Committee. Selected students must meet and maintain certain academic, financial, and discipline eligibility standards.
- For the upcoming academic year, the gift is a four-year pledge of $11,500 per year (a total of $46,000 over the four years). A four-year pledge ensures that the student will have tuition assistance during his years at The High. The cost to educate a student will be $14,000 for the school year beginning August 2015.

Several benefactors have taken an extra step and have endowed their Circle of Care Scholarship gift. The endowed gift allows them to link their legacy with that of U of D Jesuit in the form of a named scholarship. Their gift will fund in perpetuity the tuition for a student at The High. All the features of the Annual Circle of Care Scholarship also apply to the Endowed Circle of Care Scholarship. For the upcoming academic year, an Endowed Circle of Care Scholarship is a gift of $230,000. The gift may be paid over a period of five years.

If you are interested in hearing more about the Circle of Care Scholarship, please contact me at 313.927.2347 or at thomas.totte@uofdjesuit.org.

On the following page we recognize the Circle of Care Scholarship sponsors for the academic year beginning in August 2015. "Annual Scholarship" sponsors are those who made a four-year commitment to fund a student's tuition. "Endowed Scholarship" sponsors have either a fully-endowed scholarship, or one which is partially-endowed and continues to be funded towards full endowment.

2015 Alumni Senior Luncheon

Daoust '57 and Zurawski '60 honored at annual Alumni Senior Luncheon

By Jack Donnelly '99

The Detroit Athletic Club was once again the setting for the 28th Annual Alumni Senior Luncheon. During the luncheon, Fr. Joseph P. Daoust '57 and Dr. James Zurawski '60 were honored. Both Fr. Daoust and Dr. Zurawski provided great insight and had very interesting stories to tell about their experience at U of D Jesuit and what it means to be a Man For Others beyond graduation. This event is the official welcoming of the new Alumni into the ranks of 138 years of history at The High. Thank you to all whom attended this year's event. We hope to see our Alumni out again next year at the Detroit Athletic Club on Wednesday, April 27, 2016.

2015 Grand Reunion Weekend

By Jack Donnelly '99

Alumni from 1950 to 2005 attended the 2015 Grand Reunion Weekend on June 5th & 6th.

Men from the classes of 1950, 1955, 1960, 1965, 1970, 1975, 1980, 1985, 1990, 1995, 2000, and 2005 spent the weekend renewing friendships, trading stories, giving updates, and having a great time.

The Grand Reunion Weekend kicked off with our golf outing at Rackham Golf Course on Friday, June 5th. It was an enjoyable afternoon with great weather. Over 80 alumni were in attendance ranging from the classes of 1950 to 2005.

Following the golf outing, the Alumni enjoyed two nights back at The High. On Friday night, members from each reunion class were invited to "Stag Night" at school. It was a memorable night for many reasons. We witnessed classmates from various decades reunite with one another and reminisce about their time at The High. Some had not seen each other since graduation. We had people travel near and far to attend the reunion. We had Alumni from as far as Africa come in for the event. The highlight of the night was during pictures. While in line to get their picture taken, the Class of 1965 started to sing the Fight Song loudly and proudly. It was a moment that defined what it means to be a Cub. It was evident these men were extremely excited to be back where it all began. They've all gotten older since graduation, but they've all remained young at heart.

Saturday kicked off with the Detroit Bike Tour, hosted again by Tom O'Keefe '64 and Tim Dinan '83. There were a good number of participants as Tom and Tim rode past various sites in Detroit, such as the Packard Plant, the Heidelberg Project, Poletown, the River Walk, Indian Village and Corktown. Thank you to Z's Villa, who provided a meal and refreshments after the ride.

The night of Saturday, June 6th was the Reunion Mass & Dinner, where all spouses and significant others attended as well. The Class of 1965 celebrated their 50th Reunion and filled Curley Hall.

Student Senate and National Honors Society students provided school tours to the Alumni and guests. The students enjoyed hearing stories from the 'glory days' and the Alumni were able to see the Science and Engineering Center construction. One student tour guide described the conversation they heard between alumni 'like going back in time.' The Grand Reunion Weekend is a great opportunity for many generations of alumni to come together and share their common connection.

2015 Grand Reunion Weekend

2015 Grand Reunion Weekend

Martin T. Connell, S.J.

After serving as Principal of U of D Jesuit from 1998 to 2001, you pursued doctoral studies in education. Where did you study? What made you choose that particular university? The field of education must face many challenges. What challenge in particular did you hope to address? What did you hope your studies would accomplish? What area of education did you specialize in?

After leaving U of D Jesuit I started a Ph.D. program at the University of California, Santa Barbara. I was interested in the professional development of teachers and one of the leaders in that area was at UCSB. I arrived at the university in August 2001 to a letter from him explaining to me that he had moved to another university. That ended up being okay, though, because of everything else UCSB offered me: a great program, wonderful scholars, and of course, amazing weather.

My research for my dissertation looked at how conversational narratives are important resources for teacher learning. This came right out of my experience as principal at U of D Jesuit. During my time as principal I started a program called "Colleagues in Conversation." It was a chance for teachers to talk to other teachers in small groups about their teaching. What I found as I heard reports from these small groups was that there were certain themes that arose. These themes then informed the in-service development programs we developed. I discovered that such programs are far more effective when they come from the demand side than from the supply side. But that expansion led to new problems: security. Over one summer, we had three or four break-ins and lost much of the computer equipment. That forced us to install a security system in the building and hire a full-time director of security, Mr. Bob Swanson. He's still at U of D Jesuit and the school is now very safe and secure.

After earning your doctorate, what did you do next? What was your chief interest as a professor?

After I completed my doctorate I taught in the School of Education at Loyola Marymount University, the Jesuit university in Los Angeles. Most of the courses I taught had to do with diversity in schools. One of the things I didn't mention when I talked about doctoral studies is how my eyes and mind were opened in doctoral studies regarding issues of diversity – not so much by the program itself, but by my colleagues in the program. It was the first time that I came face-to-face with my own privilege as a white man. I have become passionate in my teaching about issues of equity and diversity (seeing it as a resource rather than a problem.)

How did your work in Africa come about? How long did you work in Africa? How is living in Tanzania different from the kind of life you were accustomed to in the United States? Are priorities and/or values different? How so?

While I was at LMU. I began to be asked by other Jesuit institutions to consider work in administration. I talked to the Jesuit provincial superior in Detroit about these possibilities and told him that I didn't feel tied to LMU; that as a Jesuit I felt free to go where the need was greatest. Well he took me at my word! One morning in March of 2009, he woke me up at 6:00 a.m. He was calling from Rome, where he had heard that the Eastern Africa Province of the Jesuits were opening a secondary school in Dodoma, Tanzania, but didn't have anyone with administrative experience to serve as the first headmaster. I said yes immediately. It must have been the Holy Spirit within me because I had never been to a developing country in my life! I'm glad I said 'yes' to the provincial's request because the three years spent in Dodoma were the most amazing years of my life. Dodoma is a dusty, hardscrabble place with lots of hope. That's the reason that I, a man who loves Detroit, began calling it "the dusty 'D.'" Tanzania became my home. I was back this past summer for a week, which was a great opportunity to catch up with so many people who remain dear to me.

Where Are They Now?

You worked in the Eastern Africa Jesuit province. What countries does that province encompass? Is that a growing province? Are there many Jesuits in formation? What in general are they being prepared to do? How many educational institutions does the Province sponsor?

In addition to being the first headmaster at St. Peter Claver High School, I was also the assistant provincial for education for the Eastern Africa Province of the Jesuits. The province is very young – I'm 52 and was considered "old" there, whereas in the United States I'm considered young. As the province grows in number the Jesuits are opening more and more schools. The first school was started in Wau, South Sudan, by Jesuits from (what was then) the Detroit Province. Another former principal, Fr. Dick Twohig, S.J., was the first principal of Loyola High School in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. Now we have two primary schools in Tanzania, a high school in northern Uganda, a technical school focused on agriculture in South Sudan, and another primary school in Ethiopia is being constructed. In Nairobi, Kenya, there is a Jesuit seminary, and a peace institute where folks are trained in conflict resolution.

You can see why the Church sees such hope in Africa!

What kind of school did you begin in Tanzania? Could you speak a bit about your work there? Did you work with other Jesuits? How did you manage language? What did you find most challenging in your work of beginning a new school? Most rewarding?

The school was a coeducational boarding school. Only about 25 percent of those who complete primary school have an opportunity to attend secondary school, and the percentage was even lower in Dodoma. A big part of my job was to formulate the foundational documents for the school. I still remember the mission statement: "The mission of St. Peter Claver High School, a Catholic, Jesuit school, is to assist young men and women to develop their talents, intellectual and otherwise, in order to serve others to the greater glory of God." I think you can see the Jesuit character of the school. I should add that when I left Tanzania in 2012, there were two schools in the nation that had service as an integral part of the formation of students: Loyola High School in Dar es Salaam and Saint Peter Claver High School in Dodoma.

How is the school doing today? Is it what you hoped it would be?

I mentioned I was back this summer. This was my second visit since I left three years ago. The school continues to grow – there are about 800 students now, and it graduated its first class last December. In many ways the school is everything I'd hoped for. The motto of the school comes from a theme I used for honors assemblies at U of D Jesuit: "to learn, to love, to serve." I like that motto because you can read it in two ways as discrete items or as one infinitive phrase, as in "We want our students to learn to love to serve." And in fact, our students have learned to love to serve – and I think this will be a great gift for Africa, I really do.

I have to be honest, though, that not everything has developed as I had hoped. In our first year I was happy that the sons and daughters of peasants were studying with the children of parliamentarians. There aren't nearly as many children from poor families as I'd hoped. There are two reasons for that. First, children from poorer families who rely on government schools for their primary education aren't prepared for high school. Second, the school lacks a proper endowment to generate funds to help with the fees for tuition and room and board.

Could you tell us a bit about higher education in the Eastern Africa Jesuit province, and Africa on general?

The original plan was for me to shift to different responsibilities once the high school was up and running. I was meant to open a two-year training program. The provincial at the time decided against this program in Dodoma in favor of studying the possibility of opening a university in Nairobi. The challenge of Jesuit higher education in Eastern Africa is the one Pope Francis presents to us in so many of his writings and addresses: "Are we going to serve an urban elite who are already well served, or are we going to situate ourselves on the frontier, on the periphery?" Recently I've had an article considering the role of education vis-à-vis development/progress in developing countries accepted for publication. I had several Jesuits read it before I submitted it, and I was heartened by their positive response to the challenges I articulated.

You are currently a professor of education at John Carroll University and Rector of the Jesuits in the Cleveland area. Do you train many teachers at John Carroll?

What is distinctive about Carroll's program? Where do you fit in the overall program?

I mentioned earlier my devotion to creating democratic classrooms and schools where diversity is considered a resource to be taken up and not a problem to be solved. I teach courses to undergraduate and graduate students preparing to be teachers, counselors, and school psychologists. I mostly teach courses that consider diversity in schools. In my syllabus I tell my students that "the course ought to be good, hard fun," and after we've developed the trust and the manners to enter into some difficult conversations each course becomes just that.

Could you say something about your responsibilities as Rector and Religious Superior of the Jesuits in the Cleveland area? How many Jesuits work in Cleveland?

You really wear two hats: professor of education and Religious Superior of the Jesuits. Is that a good fit?

Never in my life did I expect to be asked to be the superior of a community! I think my time as principal at U of D Jesuit has informed how I am a superior – or at least how I hope to serve as superior. I used to tell the faculty that I saw my role as principal as threefold: (1) to help the school community develop an academic vision; (2) to ensure we had the resources to pursue that vision; and (3) to hold the school community and individuals accountable regarding the vision. A lot of my work as superior has been to help my brothers appreciate the corporate nature of our life – that we aren't working as individuals but as "companions in the Lord," as we Jesuits say – to develop a vision and a sense of responsibility for that vision. I have to admit that I thought being superior would be a chore; in fact, though, I'm enjoying it – at least most days!

One of the things about the job that I'm enjoying is the chance it gives me to work with lay colleagues in the University. There isn't a formal role for the rector of the Jesuits in the University, but nevertheless I have a lot of interaction with various constituencies regarding the Catholic and Jesuit character of John Carroll. The devotion of so many people to the mission of the University is really inspiring to me as a Jesuit.

What do you think is next in your life?

When I was a Jesuit scholastic, I thought I would do a Ph.D. in medieval studies. After doing a masters degree in that subject at the University of Toronto, I ended up teaching English to freshman and juniors at St. Ignatius High School in Cleveland, and fell in love with high school teaching. During my theological studies, I yearned to return to the classroom and ended up as the Assistant Principal for Academic Affairs at St. Ignatius and then Principal at U of D Jesuit. I then went to doctoral studies with the idea that I would return to the Midwest to serve as a resource for Jesuit schools and ended up as a professor of education at Loyola Marymount, where I thought I'd spend several years – only to get that early morning phone call asking me to head to Tanzania. This is all to say that I'm prepared for anything!
