

Chances for Rain through Sunday

October 10, 2026
3:01 PM EDT

Rainfall Amounts Have Trended Slightly Down

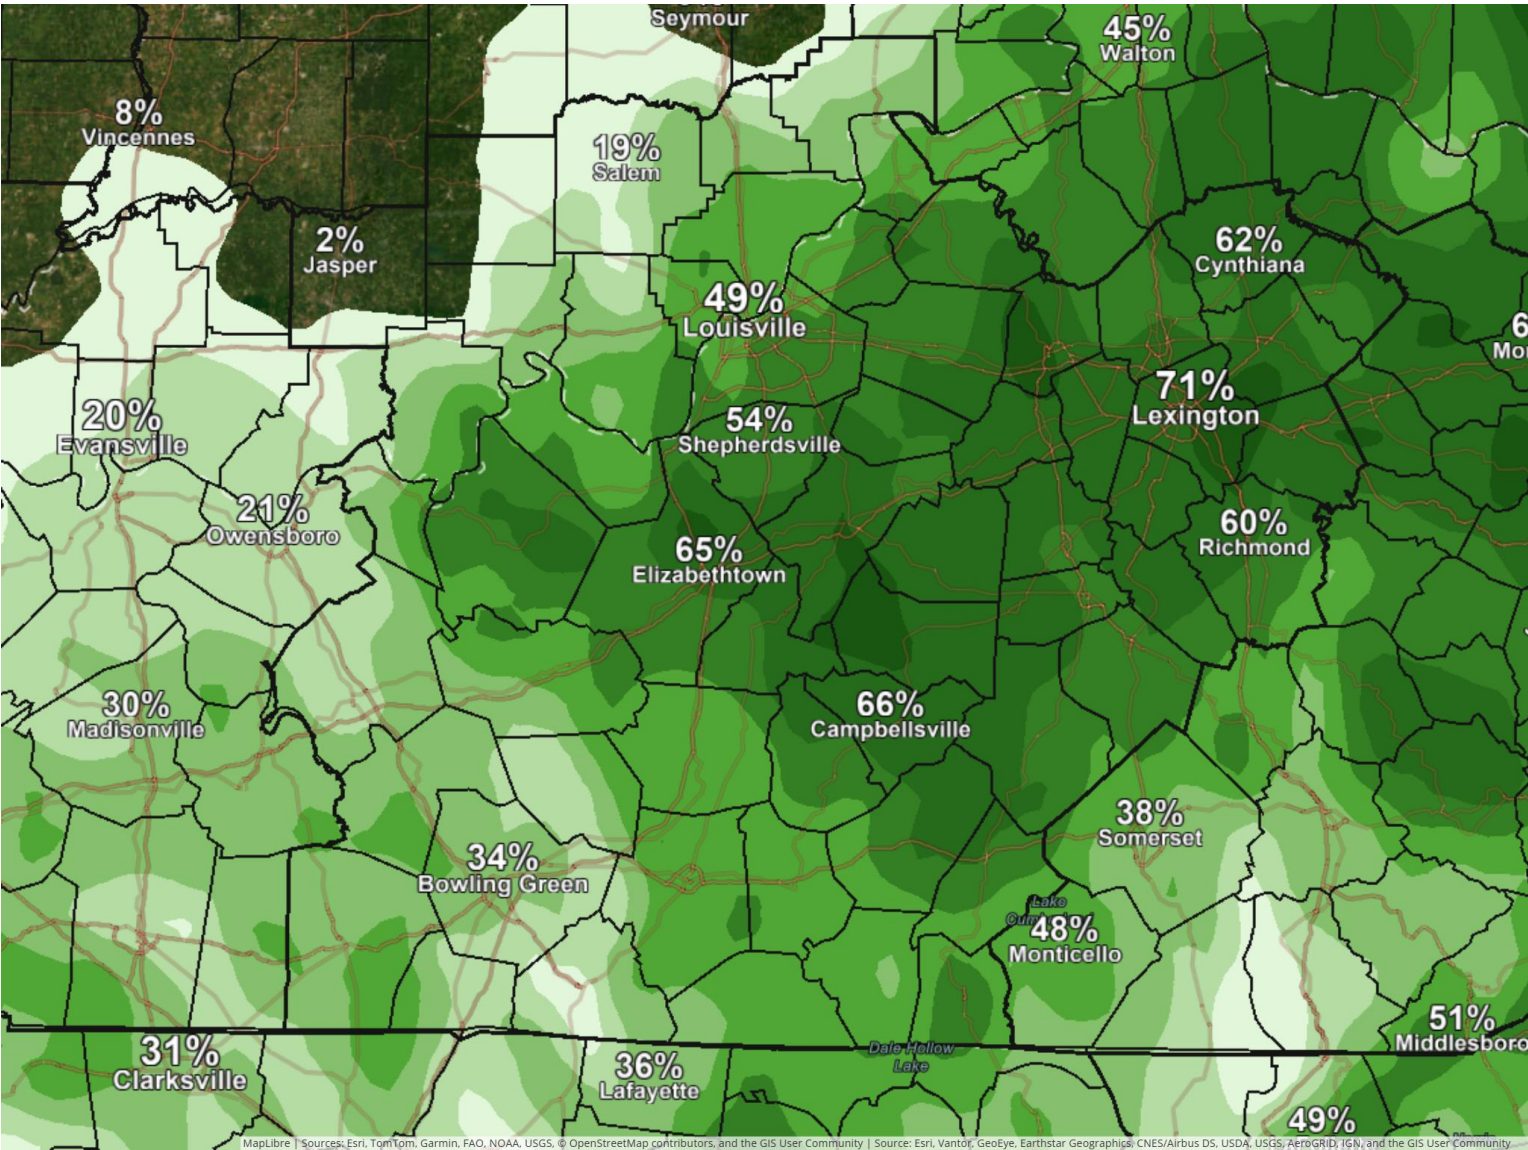

Key Messages

- Additional rainfall amounts for the remainder of Saturday through Sunday generally 0.50-1.00” are expected.
- Lighter totals in general to the north and west; heavier totals to the south and east.
- Repeated rounds of slow-moving, heavier showers, perhaps with a rumble of thunder, may result in localized heavier amounts greater than 2 inches. Most likely area to see these higher totals is east of the I-65 corridor.
- Preceding abnormally dry/moderate drought conditions will limit flooding threat.
