President's Message

FELLOW LIONS -- It is with great pleasure that I take this opportunity to thank each and everyone of you who has worked so hard to make this 37th Annual Rodeo a success.

I would also like to thank our many loyal patrons and friends for their support of this annual event.

To our friends from out of town, May your visit to Utah's Dixie be as exciting as our Round-up and Rodeo.

St. George Lions President
Doyle C. Sampson

Mayor's Message

We are proud of our City and of the Lions Club Annual Dixie Roundup and Night Rodeo.

As Mayor of St. George I extend a warm invitation to attend all activities of "Rodeo Week in Dixie". I want to thank all St. George citizens and visitors for the support of Lions Club community projects, and invite everyone to join in the entertainment and fun.

MARION BOWLER
Mayor

RODEO PRODUCER

D. A. "Swanee" Kerby, veteran Utah rodeo producer will furnish the stock for the rodeo. He is a native of Moab, Utah and is the dean of producers in the Intermountain area, having produced rodeos in Idaho, Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona, for many years.

One of the best Brahma Bull men in the west, he always has top bulls at his shows and has sent his share of bulls to the National Finals, along with some of the top horses in the business.

A real western man, Mr. Kerby is at home on a horse and has rode most of the Southern part of the State on horseback especially in the Canyonlands area. In his younger days at Moab he spent many weeks in the saddle trailing wild horses in some of the most rugged areas of the west.

Because of his knowledge of the rodeo game, he ramrods one of the fastest moving rodeos. He is well known among the nation's cowboys and knows practically all of them by their first name.

Rodeo Rules

BAREBACK BRONC RIDING

One hand rigging to be used. To qualify rider must have spurs over the break of the shoulders when horse's front feet touch the ground, first jump out of the chute. Horses will be ridden for eight seconds. Rider cannot touch horse with free hand.—Synopsis R.C.A. rules.

BULL RIDING

Riding to be done with one hand and loose rope, with or without hand hold. Rope must have bell. Bull will be ridden eight seconds. Rider will be disqualified for being bucked off or touching animal with free hand.—Synopsis R.C.A. rules.

CALF ROPING

If cowboy intends to use two loops, two ropes must be carried. Cowboy must throw calf by hand, cross and tie any three feet. If calf is down when the roper reaches it, he must allow calf to get up and then throw calf. Tie must hold for six seconds after roper calls time.—Synopsis R.C.A. rules.

STEER WRESTLING

Steer must be caught from horse. If steer gets loose dogger may take no more than one step to catch him. Steer will be considered down only when it is lying flat on its side, all four feet and head straight.—Synopsis R.C.A. rules.

SADDLE BRONC RIDING

To qualify, rider must have spurs over the break of the shoulders and touching the horse when front feet hit the ground first jump out of the chutes. Rider disqualified for: being bucked off; changing hands on rein; losing stirrup; or touching the animal, saddle or rein with his free hand.—Synopsis R.C.A. rules.

PRIZE MONEY

Rodeo is a contest of cowboys competing for prize money. So the simplest, fairest way to name the world champions of professional rodeo is by counting the money they win each season.

From official results of every rodeo approved by the Rodeo Cowboys Association each season, a careful, cumulative record of dollars won through the year by every cowboy member, is kept at the association's Denver, Colorado headquarters.

At the end the regular season, a certified public accountant audits the financial chart and ascertains the top 15 winners in each event. These men become eligible to compete in the title playoffs, the National Finals Rodeo.

The NFR does not change the system of naming champions but is simply fitted into it. Money won at the Finals, along with seasonal earnings, all are dollars toward the titles. So the titlists still are the men who won the most money for the year.

A total of $24,000 in added financial dividends is guaranteed the new crown-wearers by the R.C.A. This is apportioned $3,000 per title, with the champion getting 40 per cent, runner-up, 30 per cent, third place winner 20 per cent, and fourth place holder 10 per cent, and is aside from contributions from other donors.

THE ZOPPE INDIAN SPECTACULAR

The Joe Zoppe Family Indian Rosinback Riding Act will be one of the highlights of the 1971 Dixie Roundup. The Zoppes feature the entire family—father and mother—Joe and Peggy—and their three children—all teenagers. Roger, the twins, Dennis and Denise.

The Fabulous Zoppes present acts of horsemanship and gymnastics in a fast moving routine that leaves people gasping. Roger throws some comedy effects, which along with the thrills and chills of the daring balancing and jumping has made the Zoppes one of the most sought after acts in Rodeo today.
