When I was about 15 years old (in 1822) we moved to Sidney, Shelby County, Ohio. There I went considerably to school and was very diligently endeavoring to get a useful education, as in Highland Co.. Biography of Silas Richards, A pioneer who came to Utah in 1849. p.1.

In the fall of 1835, we moved to Illinois where my father-in-law had gone three years previous...

24. Silas Richards, Biography of Silas Richards, A pioneer who came to Utah in 1849, p. 16, 18. November 6. [1869] Went to the Council Bluffs cemetery to see the grave of our daughter Elizabeth Ann, who was buried there in 1846, in the 16th year of her age. The grave is marked by a white marble tombstone at head and foot, without her name visible. At her burial her name was written on the stone with black paint but no trace of it was left. The black letters E.R. written by myself were plain on the foot stone under the surface of the earth. I was told by an old neighbor that had lived there ever since I left, that rumor said that the stones were taken up by some person from our daughter's grave and placed at another grave after I left the country in 1849.

... Nothing to mark the place [of burial of Robert McClenahan], said to be by the side of our daughter, Elizabeth Ann, which is marked by a white marble tombstone at head and foot without her name, thought bearing the following inscription;
Here lonely and sad, in this wilderness land thy parents resigning deplore thee
Sweet, sweet be thy rest till thy Savior's command
In beauty and youth shall restore thee.
